

1820

Perspectives on a Year of Crisis
in the British and Irish
Isles

For the link to the online conference,
contact: rachel.rogers@univ-tlse2.fr

Online Conference
UNIVERSITÉ TOULOUSE - JEAN JAURÈS
(CAS Axe 3 / ATHIP / DEMA / UFR Langues)

In memory of Malcolm Chase

1820 Perspectives on a Year of Crisis in the British and Irish Isles

5th March 2021

10h00 (Paris time)
9.00am (GMT) Welcome and introduction

10h15 (Paris time)
9.15am (GMT) Keynote Address

After Peterloo: the pattern of resistance, 1819-20

Robert Poole

University of Central Lancashire, UK

(chair: Rachel Rogers)

11h15 (Paris time)
10.15am (GMT) Break

11h30 (Paris time)
10.30am (GMT) Panel 1

1820 in Britain, Ireland

(chair: Myriam Yakoubi)

Planting the Seeds of Rebellion or/and Police Surveillance: Irish Agrarian Societies' Unrest and Criminality from 1820 onwards

Emilie Berthillot

Université de Lille / CECILLE

Jane Marcet on the Peasants' Revolt: how political economy can prevent social unrest

Alexandra Sippel

Université de Toulouse Jean Jaurès / CAS

Discussion

12h45 (Paris time)
11.45pm (GMT) Lunch break

14h00 (Paris time)
1.00pm (GMT) Keynote Address

1820: A year of Conspiracies

Gordon Pentland

University of Edinburgh, UK

(chair: Nathalie Duclos)

15h00 (Paris time)
2.00pm (GMT) Break

15h15 (Paris time)
2.15pm (GMT) Panel 2

1820 in Broader European and Transatlantic Perspectives

(chair: Simon Deschamps)

Robert Wedderburn, an anti-slavery campaigner at the crossroads of various influences

Eric Doumerc

Université de Toulouse Jean Jaurès / CAS

1820 dans le monde espagnol : triennat libéral et indépendances

Emmanuelle Perez-Tisserant

Université de Toulouse Jean Jaurès / FRAMESPA

Unacknowledged legislators: Poetry and politics in the historiography of the Greek Revolution 1821-1832

Helen Goethals

Université de Toulouse Jean Jaurès / CAS

Discussion

17h00 (Paris time)
4.00pm (GMT) Round table discussion

17h30 (Paris time)
4.30pm (GMT) End of the conference